Top PT Ian Macdonald: "There will always be demand for multiculturalism research"

Ian Macdonald, Professor of Political Science at the University of British Columbia, has co-authored a book on "Terror in the Name of God: The Power of Allah in Politics". The book explores the ways in which religion is used as a tool to justify terrorism.

"The power of religious discourse to justify violence is a recurring theme throughout the book," Macdonald said. "It's important to understand the role religion plays in the political landscape, especially in light of the events in Brussels and Paris."
